WIFE SAVERS BY MRS. MARY MORTON

Peanut Butter and Maple Sandwiches.—Butter thin slices of white or brown bread, spread one slice with peanut butter and the other with shaved maple sugar. Press slices together and serve.

Tapioea Custard.—The tapioea custard is made with minute tapioea, cooked until transparent in a little water, and a custard of eggs, milk, and flavoring poured over it, and cooked till smooth and creamy. Beat the egg whites and add just before taking from the fire. This makes the pudding very light and fluffy. If you wish you may put a square of currant jelly at the edge of each plate.

Goulash.—One pound of round steak, one pound veal steak. Cut in pieces and brown in fat in frying pan. Brown two or three onions in fat, put all in baking dish, cover all with water and bake, covered, for one hour. Partly cook potatoes, carrots, turnips, green pepper, cut in small pieces in fat in frying pan.

Date and Nut Pudding.—Mix together a cup each of quartered dates and chopped walnuts with two tablespoons of flour to which has been added a pinch of salt and a teaspoon of baking powder. Now add to that the beaten yolks of two eggs and then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Bake in a shallow buttered baking dish in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes. Serve with whipped cream.

The lower part of the handle of a percolator is apt to become charred when placed over a lidless gas range. You can remedy the matter by taking a piece of aluminum one inch wide and two and one-half inches long, or the length from the percolator to the handle, plus one-half inch, which you must bend over and insert between the percolator and the little plate to which the handle is riveted. With a punch make a hole in the opposite end and with a small screw fasten it to the wooden handle. Zinc or tin can be used. If handle is curved, shape material accordingly.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state.)

Macaroni and Tomatoes.—Boil one package of macaroni. Take one cup grated cheese, one can or six medium-sized tomatoes, one cup milk, three tablespoons flour, one tablespoon butter, one teaspoon sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one green pepper. Fry tomatoes while macaroni is cooking. Make white sauce by melting butter, adding flour, then milk, and cheese when the first three are smooth and boiling. Season. Place the macaroni in the center of the dish, cover with white sauce, place fried tomatoes around the edge. If canned tomatoes are used, drain and heat them through with a little butter and place around the macaroni.

Crumb Cookies.—Cream two cups sugar, one cup lard and butter, one cup warm water, two teaspoons soda, one teaspoon cloves, three cups crumbs of dry cookies or cake, one cup molasses, three eggs, two teaspoons cinnamon, six cups flour, one-half pound of nut meats or raisins. Drop batter from spoon onto cookie pan.

Pork Chops Baked with Apples.—Chop ribs chops, remove the bones and allow one or two chops for each person to be served. Put one tablespoon minced onion into a small dish of vinegar to cover. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and let stand half an hour. Drain onion from vinegar when ready to use. Sprinkle chops with salt and pepper. Pare and core apples and cut in half-inch slices across. Put a layer of apples into a slightly buttered casserole, sprinkle with brown sugar and dash of cinnamon, add one-half teaspoon of minced onion and cover with pork chops. Continue alternate layers of chops and apples until all are used. The last layer should be of apples. Add two or three tablespoons of water to prevent burning. Cover casserole and bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Remove cover and brown on top.

A "seven-days rain" would probably be a novelty to the bride and her friends. In planning this shower each girl or group of girls is made responsible for one day in the week. Which makes the idea an admirable one for a club or girls to adopt for the one of their number who is to be married.

The group to choose Monday would have gifts appropriate to that day—clothesline, clothespins, hamper, laundry bag, or soap. Tuesday would present her with an iron-holder, patent sprinkler or sleeveboard, or even an electric iron if the girls wanted to give so expensive a present. The same idea would follow through the rest of the week, through mending, cleaning and baking days to Sunday, the dress-up day with its personal veils, handkerchiefs, and all the rest.

Original verses for each day would add much to the fun. The decorations should carry out the same idea. Calendars could be prominent, and tiny cupids sheltered under paper umbrellas could decorate the favor boxes. Many ingenious ideas will suggest themselves to you when you plan a shower of this kind.

Weekend visitors in Fresno were Mrs. M. P. Peer, Miss Margaret Shell, and Dr. N. A. Leake and Mrs. Leake Sr.

Ben Hannebrink's Car Is Damaged as Machines Collide

Ben F. Hannebrink, chief of the Torrance fire department, reported to Torrance police an automobile accident in which his car was damaged Monday. The mishap occurred at the intersection of South Park and Rosecrans avenues. A car driven by Everett Brown of Los Angeles crashed into a machine ahead of it and Hannebrink was unable to check his machine in time to avoid crashing into the Brown machine. The fenders of the Hannebrink car were damaged and the windshield broken. Brown was slightly injured. Chief Hannebrink drove Brown to the police station at Seventy-seventh street and Moneta avenue, from which he was taken to the emergency hospital. His injuries were not severe.
